Notice

Students are hereby informed that the College has obtained institutional membership of DELNET (Developing Library Network) to provide access to a wide range of digital academic resources.

Through this facility, students can access e-books, e-journals, research articles, databases, and other resources that can support their academic studies, assignments, projects, and research work.

Students are encouraged to make effective use of this facility and explore the extensive academic resources available through DELNET.

For details regarding access and login credentials, students may approach the College Library during library hours.
