

Time 2½ Hours

Total Marks-75

- ❖ All questions are compulsory
- ❖ Figures to the right indicate full marks
- ❖ Give relevant examples wherever necessary

Q.1 A. Write a 1000-words travel article for a magazine on the theme 'Best Indian places to visit in India for summers.' Provide a creative heading to it as well. (15)

OR

B. Too much text without pictures can make the reader lose interest in the travel article. Agree or disagree? Express your stand in detail. (15)

Q.2 A. Why is it important to know the publication house audience before writing a travel article? (08)

B. Explain with an example how can characters and descriptions bring story to life. (07)

OR

C. What are the ethical issues while covering travel journalism? Explain how to avoid them. (08)

D. Describe the qualities of a good travel writer. (07)

Q.3 A. Explain the challenges of being a freelance travel writer. (08)

B. What is Photojournalism? Elaborate its relevance in India. (07)

OR

C. Write a note on the steps to keep in mind while writing for Travel guidebooks and Apps. (08)

D. Explain how digital photography has revolutionized the world of Photojournalism. (07)

Q.4 A. A travel article without a theme and a narrative structure cannot ever be whole. Agree or disagree? Express your stand in detail. (15)

OR

B. Provide a detailed note on famous pictures that changed the world. How can a photojournalist prepare better to click such pictures. (15)

Q.5 Write Short Note On (Any 3) (15)

1. Travel Blogging
2. Pitching a Story
3. Online Travel Journalism
4. Fields of Photojournalism
5. Do's and Don'ts of Travel Writing